

Schedule of Events

Friday, May 16th

5:00 – Cash bar and Symposium introduction

5:30 - Dr. Nigel Brush - From Ridges and Rockshelters to Valley Bottoms and Bogs: Paleoamerican Footprints across Central Ohio.

6:30 - Jerrel Anderson - Circleville Hopewell: the Where, What, Why and Whom.

7:30 - Greg Shipley - The Little Darby Red Ocher Kame: A C14 dated (2500BC) Late Archaic “bannerstone inclusive” Mortuary Site in Champaign County, Ohio.

Saturday, May 17th

8:00 – Introduction and Announcements

Morning Session:

8:15 – 9:15 Dr. R. M. Gramly - Descendents of Clovis: Persistence of the Fluted Point Tradition in New England.

9:30 – 10:30 Dr. Mark Hubbe - The Early Habitants of Lagoa Santa, Brazil: Implications for the discussion about the Settlement of the Americas.

10:45 – 11:45 Dr. Brian Redmond - The Firelands Ground Sloth: Earliest Evidence for Human Hunting in Ice Age of Ohio.

11:45-1:00 Lunch

Afternoon Session:

1:00-2:00 Robert Converse - The Use of Exotic Flint Sources by Paleoamericans.

2:15-3:15 Dr. Andy Hemmings - Recent Developments in Paleoindian Archaeology in Florida.

3:30 4:30 Dr. Darrin Lowery - Clovis and Palaeo-American Occupations within the Delmarva Peninsula Coastal Plain of the Middle Atlantic.

Dinner

6:00 – 9:00 Dinner and Keynote Address

Dr. Doug Owsley, Smithsonian Institution
“Osteobiographies of Ancient Americans”